Summary

I'm Ranjot Singh, a recent Computer Science graduate with a passion for technology. Projects like a News Website and a Personal Desktop Assistant refined my skills in Programming and Software Development at Arka Jain University. Thriving in collaborative environments, I've developed strong communication and teamwork skills. Beyond coding, I'm intrigued by AI, Graphic Designing, and UI/UX Designing. Eager to contribute to Software Development, Data Science, or Artificial Intelligence, I'm motivated to make a meaningful impact. Let's connect if you share similar interests or have exciting opportunities. I look forward to contributing to the ever-evolving tech landscape.
